NARASI PENCALONAN INDONESIA MENJADI ANGGOTA DEWAN ICAO PERIODE 2016-2019

Indonesia has been a member of ICAO since April 1950. It has played an active role in the ICAO Council from 1962 to 2001. As a committed ICAO member State and in order to promote the development of international cooperation in aviation safety and security, in air transport, in the protection of the environment, as well as in human resources development and capacity building. Indonesia has been mindful to implement all relevant ICAO policies and SARPS and to be guided by best practices. Training of our human resources is one of our highest priorities for making air transport, safe, secure and sustainable.

We desire to further participate in the work on the ICAO Council and to give our strong commitment to the realization of ICAO's main purposes and objectives to ensure a safe, secure and sustainable civil aviation system. The Republic of Indonesia will be a candidate for election as a member of the ICAO Council in Part III of the forthcoming elections for the 2016 – 2019 period. The Government of Indonesia therefore will kindly appreciate the support of your respective Governments for its election during the ICAO Council elections, which will take place during this 39th ICAO Assembly.
